EasyHome Ltd.

EasyHome is Canada's largest merchandise lease company, and the third largest in North America, offering top-quality, brand name household furnishings, appliances and home electronic products to consumers under weekly or monthly lease agreements. After acquiring a new space, EasyHome desired a departure from their traditional cubicles and were seeking a furniture system that would facilitate an open, friendly environment. EasyHome's previous experience with Tayco, lead them to choose the Up post and beam system for their open office. In addition, Tayco's Metropolis casegoods furnished private offices while the One-Touch training table outfitted corporate training centers.
